LEARN INSIDE A WORKING THEATRE

Step into the Addy Theatrical Training and Innovation Center at Proctors, where a professional performing arts venue becomes your classroom. Students train in music, dance, theatre, and media, gaining hands-on experience, and building the confidence, skills, and discipline needed to unlock your creative potential.

“ I feel like I’m training in a real Broadway environment – every day is a new challenge and opportunity. ”

HALF DAY, FULL IMPACT

Designed to enhance, not replace, school arts programs, students remain connected to their home schools while gaining access to expanded training opportunities and professional exposure that deepen their artistic development.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Provides credit in music, dance, theatre, and English (Mediaworks)
- Complements, does not replace, traditional school curriculum
- Career exploration in performing arts and entertainment industries

YOUR SKILLS, PORTFOLIO, AND FUTURE GROW HERE

Students develop:

- Experiential learning: hands-on projects in a professional theatre
- Artistic and professional skills: music, dance, theatre, and media
- Leadership and collaboration: ensemble-based work that strengthens teamwork
- Portfolio and resume development: real-world projects to showcase skills
- Career exposure: insight into multiple paths in the entertainment industry

“ This program opened my eyes to careers I didn’t even know existed.”

TRAIN WHERE THE PROFESSIONALS PERFORM

Students experience industry-standard facilities, working alongside professional expectations and standards.

Enroll today in Musical Theatre Academy and gain the skills, experience, and confidence to take your next step — on stage, in school, and toward your future career.
